

ASEP Board of Directors Roster & Bios

Tany Blasko – Executive Director since August 2017 & staff member since 2014.

Tany's passion for youth development and social justice lead her to ASEP five years ago. Her background is in sustainable agriculture and entrepreneurship where she managed urban farming and youth development programs in Boston, MA. At ASEP, Tany has had the opportunity to innovate program and business operations with her previous roles as Development Director and Program Director while simultaneously earning her MBA from Babson College. Today, Tany is proud to lead the ASEP team with a vision for equity and quality education services. In her free time she loves to explore the CA coast and host community dinners with family and friends.

Covahne Michaels, President, Member since 2018

Covahne is a Marketing Executive with 20 years experience in Consumer Food and Technology companies including Kraft Foods, J.M. Smucker, and Yahoo! She has an MBA from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth and a BS from University of Colorado at Boulder. Covahne has two boys currently enrolled in ASEP's McKinley Elementary programs. She's seen how affordable, reliable, quality after school programming significantly enhances the experiences and happiness of students and creates peace of mind for parents. She's passionate about giving back to the organization that has provided so much to her family and the SF public school community. In her free time she enjoys yoga, running, and any unstructured time she can get with her boys and husband.

Aaron Darsky, Secretary, member since 2014

Aaron Darsky is a partner at LEDA Law where he works to advocate tenant rights and personal injury claims. Aaron received a bachelor of arts degree from Michigan State College of Business and his juris doctorate from Golden Gate University School of Law. He is a member of the State Bar of California, and admitted to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. He is the single father of two sons, both of whom attended ASEP while at McKinley, and are now at Everett Middle School. ASEP's program has been essential to making Aaron's life work as a single dad and he appreciates how hard the team works to find programs--such as Digital Sound Arts--that can capture the energy and imagination of students in the challenging post-school hours. In his free time, he can be found driving his sons to soccer, attending their tournaments and seeing and playing rock music (sometimes with his sons!)

Ellie Karlsson, General Board Member since 2017

A veterinarian and animal welfare advocate in biomedical research, Ellie earned her DVM from the University of California, Davis and is a Diplomate of the American College of Laboratory Animal Medicine. Her involvement in the field spans academia, government, non-profits and startups, where she promotes the humane care of animals while supporting researchers who are advancing health and medicine. Ellie has 3 boys in ASEP McKinley, who've participated in Comprehensive and Club programming. After joining the McKinley community in 2013, Ellie saw that ASEP was integral to supporting her family through compassionate care and high quality arts enrichment. In her downtime Ellie enjoys exploring the city, being outdoors, cooking, crafting, and travelling.

Rebecca Kee - General Board Member since 2017

Rebecca is Head of School at Potrero Kids, a preschool founded with the mission of providing high-quality early education to the diverse Potrero Hill community. She began her career in education 14 years ago as a public school teacher in San Francisco, and has also worked for nonprofit organizations that support financial equality and women's entrepreneurship. Rebecca has two sons enrolled at ASEP Daniel Webster and appreciates how the high-quality programming enables public school students to experience innovative enrichment activities together. In her free time she enjoys playing guitar, making color-coded spreadsheets, and baking more cupcakes than her family can eat.

Rute Ferreira, General Board Member, since 2018

An architect and urban designer with a background spanning public realm, affordable housing and community buildings, Rute loves the energy of cities and is passionate about getting people of all ages and backgrounds to engage with making them better places for all. Rute has practiced in the UK, Sweden, Portugal and the US. Alongside her design practice she has led research studies and workshops, authored picture books about the urban fabric and taught at several universities. Rute's twin daughters are in third grade at McKinley and the ASEP comprehensive program. They love chess club, food ed, dance and art. Rute is at her happiest discovering new places on foot, reading and drawing with her kids, and cooking with friends.

Teresa Overskei - General Board Member since 2019

Teresa is an executive at Facebook, working on strategic planning and operations for external-facing business teams. She earned her bachelors degree from Yale University and her MBA from Harvard Business School, and has over 15 yrs of experience in finance, corporate strategy, asset management, and planning+ops at companies like Capital One, Mitsubishi, Morgan Stanley, Deezer, and now Facebook. Growing up in a household with two working parents, Teresa saw how much after school care helped to enable both parents' careers, and how important quality after school care is to a child's happiness and development. She's also a big believer in team sports and fitness, having grown up playing soccer and volleyball. Through her work with ASEP, she hopes to grow such opportunities for after school care, learning, and sports for more children in the Bay Area.

Megan McCarthy - General Board Member since 2019

Megan is a financial analyst at Yelp orchestrating financial forecasts and strategic decision making. She earned her bachelor's locally at University of San Francisco. Here she started tutoring low income students, a role she continued part time for years after graduating. Since then, Megan has spent 5 years across various finance functions. She was lucky enough to grow up in a community that valued education in and outside of the classroom, participating in such activities as after-school science club, cultural cooking classes and many, many sports. In her work through ASEP she hopes to provide similarly supportive after school experiences for children in the Bay Area.

Maya Mascarenhas - General Board Member since 2019

Maya Mascarenhas is the founder of Move Mamas, a company that is building an online platform to help women fit more exercise into their busy lives. She has a PhD in epidemiology from the University of California, San Francisco, a masters in public health from University of California, Berkeley and a BA from Stanford. She also worked at the World Health Organization studying global health statistics. Maya has two girls currently enrolled in ASEP's Daniel Webster aftercare program. Her girls have loved the after care programming, particularly the Tree Frog Treks and art enrichments as well as the club offerings such as soccer. In her free time, she enjoys having fun with her family playing sports and spending time in the all the wonderful nature California. time with her family in the great outdoors and playing sports.
